Mrs. L. L. Chapman,
Smithfield, Virginia.

My dear Mrs. Chapman:

I have heard of you indirectly from Mrs. Lucile G. Pleasants, of Los Angeles. I have also read with much interest your contributions to the various genealogical magazines of Virginia.

I wonder if you have in your files the will of John Ellis, "of the Parish of Nottoway in the county of Amelia", 1753. Witnessed by Charles Irby.

My interest in the above is from this fact. In 1752 Philip Pledger and his wife (a Miss Ellis) emigrated from Amelia county, Va. to South Carolina. His pass-port was signed by Charles Irby, and stated that he had been an inhabitant of Amelia county for 12 years. He had two sons, Joseph and John, and two daughters, one of whom married Henry Council.

I would like to know your charge for a copy of a will, and also what families you are particularly interested in.

Very sincerely yours,

Louise Wauson Smith

My dear Mrs Chapman—

How much interested

I was in your letter of a fortnight ago!
And in the fact that the Woodson line is also one of yours—my father, Robert Scott Woodson<sup>Ch. U.S.A.</sup>, was a native of Virginia, and how proud he was of it!
His father was born in Goodland, so my interest has been mainly in that County, and Henrico. I wonder if you have seen Henry M. Woodson's book on "the Woodsons and their connections."
It has a good deal about the Payne connection. Pitman's "Americans of Fifth Birth" has a good deal also about the Woodsons from the earliest days, and also the Ferris family. If I am not guilty of "carrying coals to New-Castle" I would be glad to copy the data from both and send it to you.

I was greatly interested in the abstract of John Ellis' will in 1762. And in the conveyance of land to "Philip Pledge & Nancy Pledge his daughter". I wonder if that is Pledge's daughter or John Ellis's. Philip Pledge came to P. S. shortly after 1752 - So far as I can find out they had 4 children, Joseph & John, and a daughter who married one James Hicks and another who married Henry Council — the latter, forebears of my husband's.

One account says the family of Council came from Virginia with Philip Pledge - I wonder if you have any data about the Councils of the same county - presumably, Amelia Co. I know that there are a great many in the Isle of Wight Co.

Also two wills of Thomas & Martha Pledger, but that is not the right county.
Speaking of Isle of Wight county reminds me - I took the liberty of showing your leaflet on the Isle of Wight Co. marriages to my friend, Miss Jessie Ham who is at the head of the "Southern Collection" in our public library. She was very much interested in it, and I think she hopes to get a copy from you. I would like to see it so much, though some of my family comes from that section.
I don't doubt you are familiar with the Swann family history.
So many of them come from Surry and Isle of Wight counties. Samuel Swann who married Jno. Drummond's daughter and (2) Elizabeth, Jno.
Lillingston's daughter, came to North Carolina - all this seems beside the point, but what I wish to tell you is this — that I have a copy of the diary of Samuel Swann, which he gives what one might call the "vital statistics" of his father, Col. Thomas and his 5 wives (of Va) and his grand father William Swann the Emigrant to Va. in 1635. I would be glad to copy it for you, if it would be of any interest to you.

I notice that Stewarts Genealogical Index cites data on the Ellis family in several issues of the Times Dispatch — available in photostat, I doubt doubt, through the Va. State Library. Do you know whether this is one family of Ellis's or not?
Note the "possessive" one family," for I am convinced John Ellis — 1762 — was Philip Pledge's father
- in law. I wonder why Nancy Ellis Pledge, nor Jane Ellis Wade were not mentioned in his will. Dead possibly. With apologies for such a long letter,
Cordially yours —
Laurie Worden Smith

Amelia County: I, Charles Irby, one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the said county, do hereby certify that the bearer Philip Pledger is, and has been an inhabitant of this county 12 years, and behaved well, and has published his intentions of traveling into Carolina. Therefore I desire all persons to permit the said Philip Pledger to pass and repass upon his lawful affairs, as he may have occasion. Given under my hand and seal, the 17th of March, 1752.

Charles Irby.
